

Deployment Support Card Special Events & Activities

Each month there are several Family and MWR activities specifically for Star Card holders and their Families to participate in.

In addition to the regularly scheduled Deployment Support Card events, card holders are also given special benefits at large Family and MWR events, such as reserved seating areas or discounted or free games and ride tickets.

By following us on Twitter and joining our Facebook group, card holders may receive special last minute perks such as free ticket giveaways or special meet and greet opportunities.

Program Overview & Information

What is the Deployment Support Card Program

The Family and Morale, Welfare and Recreation (MWR) Deployment Support Card program is a deployment discount and activity card for Army Spouses and Families of deployed Soldiers.

The Deployment Support Card program was developed in appreciation of these Families for the sacrifices they make while their service members are deployed.
